HEADBANGERS HEAVEN:

March 11, 2016 – Keith Emerson, keyboardist in Emerson, Lake & Palmer, dies of a self-inflicted gunshot wound to the head. He was 71. Suffering from heart disease and depression associated with alcohol, Emerson allegedly was worried about playing poorly due to nerve damage in one of his hands. Beginning with The Nice and then with ELP and his solo work, Emerson has been described as “perhaps the greatest, most technically accomplished keyboardist in rock history.” Known for extreme on-stage theatrics, Emerson

~~accomplished keyboardist in rock history. Known for extreme off-stage tendencies, Emerson could play his keyboard upside down, while using knives to wedge down the keys.~~

March 11, 2019 – Hal Blaine (born Harold Simon Belsky), one of the most recorded studio drummers in music history, dies of natural causes in Palm Desert, CA. He was 90. It is estimated that Blaine played on over 35,000 recording sessions, producing 150 U.S. top 10 hits, 40 of which went to #1. He played on six consecutive songs that garnered a Grammy Award for Record of the Year from 1966-1971. He was so prolific that he had a stamp made that says “Hal Blaine Strikes Again” which was seen in famous drum booths across the U.S. In 2000, he was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame as a “sideman” and in 2018 he received a Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award.

March 11, 2015 – Jimmy Greenspoon dies of cancer in Maryland. He was 67. Greenspoon was the keyboardist in Three Dog Night, and also performed and recorded with the likes of Eric Clapton, Jeff Beck, Linda Ronstadt and Jimi Hendrix, among others. Additionally, he composed original music for films, including Field of Dreams, United 93, Die Hard and Predator.
